

UNIVERSITY OF MAINE SYSTEM TRUSTEES TO MEET NOVEMBER 14-15 IN FARMINGTON

BANGOR—The University of Maine System Board of Trustees will hold a two-day meeting November 14-15 at the University of Maine at Farmington campus.

Items to be reviewed and considered by Trustees include:

- Various proposals for facilities—renovations, leases, and new projects;
- Changes to academic programs;
- Approval of the annual financial report for fiscal year 2010;
- Confirmation of two faculty and two students as non-voting representatives to the Board, and;
- Role and scope statements for each university.

Trustees will also receive reports on: the academic program review process; the enrollment planning process; OnLineMaine distance education delivery; and “Bending the Trend,” a collaborative System initiative to slow the growth in health care costs, led by a task force comprised of management, union leaders, and other experts from within and outside the System.

Established in 1968, the University of Maine System is the state’s largest educational enterprise. It has an annual enrollment of more than 42,000 students and serves over 500,000 individuals annually through educational and cultural offerings. Nearly two-thirds of its alumni—nearly 120,000 people—live in Maine. The University of Maine System features seven universities—some with multiple campuses—located across the state, as well as nine University College outreach centers, a law school, and an additional 75 interactive distance learning sites.
